LAW INTELLIGENCE.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT-Oct. 12

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—Oct. 12

Before Judge Ingresolt.

BEDICTMENT FOR ENLISTING MEN FOR A FOREIGN SERVIEC.

The case of Joseph Wagner, indicted on a charge of enlisting, in the city of New-York, Abraham Cook, in violation of the Neutral ty laws, as a soldier in the British service, was called on for trial. Messrs. Ogden Hoffman, Charles Edwards, W. R. Bebee, J. S. Carpervier, and Fullerton appeared in his behalf, and Mr. McKeon distinctatorsey, for the United States.

Mr. Bebee said that they intended objecting to some of the counts in the invicement, but it would be done on the trial.

The following gentlemen were sworn as jurors:
Robert S. Berline, James McLaughlin, Aaron D.
Hopping, Gersbom Cohen, Sylvester S. Post, Eliakim
L. Bolles, Philip Leonard, Moses A. Hoppock, James
M. Parker, Stephen W. Jones, Milo Root and Reuben Mr. Bebee suggested to the jurors that if they enter-

Mr. Be bee suggested to the jurors that if they entertained any prejudices in relation to the case one way or the other, it would be proper for them to retire from the jury-box. None of them withdrew.

The district-attorney opened the case. He said:
An American jury is imponed to try a violation of the Neutrality laws. The United States have adopted the law of nations on the surject, and passed laws of their own in regard to other countries. The United States desire to remain at peace. She is a nation of industry, and it is desirable to keep aloof from the quarrels of other nations. This lass been the course of this country from the earliest formation of our Govof the country from the earliest formation of our dovernment, and in the time of Gen. Washington a law was passed in 1794, and another in 1818, with this object, and any person attempting to violate the law by unlisting men for the service of a foreign government, to operate against a nation with which this country is at peace, is liable on conviction to fine, and to impresement for not over three years. A similar law had at peace, is liable on conviction to fine, and to impreonment for not over three years. A similar law had long previously been passed by England herself, in the time of George III, and another in he time of George III, so that that country has, like ourselves, laws to preserve properly the law of nations.

We have been informed by the public press, and from other sources, that the B him government sat out to entire men for their service in this country. The man on trial is humble, yet he has to defend one the most eminent counsel in New York. It is evalent that this nation throws he shield around him to-day. He is but the instrument of an invalion that to ke place spainst our municipal laws. The district attorney stated the facts in the case. Although a humble men, he might have involved this country in serious consequences. The district-attorney reminded the jury of the important duty which they have been called upon to perform.

The district attorney had called Mr. Stanley, the British vice-consul, and Mr. S avanced towerd the samil, but the district-attorney sad he would first call two other wincoses. He then called Meade and Bedling as above; after which the district-attorney sad he would not examine Mr. Stanley.

"Mr. Stanley remarked: "You will not examine me, is "I speaking in a tone as if he was rather surprised and pleased at the amouncement. The district-attorney replied; No. sir." Mr. S. bowed took up his hat and left the court-room.

The district attorney said he there rested his case.

The district attorney said he there rested his case.

Mesers. Hoffman and Bebee contended that nothing hat been shown to bring the desicolain within the law, as there had been no setual hearing, it below merely selvice and no agreement to pay money or board, and no money paid; and if there had been any paid afterward it was in Boston, not here, and cannot be inquired of in this district.

The district-actio new said a few words in reply.

The judy a said. In order to hold the defendant in this district, there must have been something done in New-York. Whether stains to the winness that when he arrives at Halfa, be will get thry dollars bounty and the dollars a month is a sefficient our silvent for himself, and the second within the law, not too more cassary to be decided. He thought it before go to the jury.

In Bebee then opened the case for deferse. He said that a monorain had been made of a molein! All that can be said to the case is, that engaging the winces to go away was but aceping one loss ont of the Almehouse here. He splage as a state-to callet abrack, or whatever the he has replaced, or whatever the he has peace, without obtaining leave from the district-attorney, or any rate class. He indisced that the law of Congress does not provide for such a case as this, but is intended to prevent expense.

"The o'd crop of coffee was very large, but the cpinion now is that supplies will fall off. The next picking of the present crop will be unusually late, say October, when there is generally much rain, which will probably lead to the loss of much of the crop, which, even under the most favorable weather, promises very poorly. Some of the planters, who last year made 20,000 arrobes, do not expect to make over 3,000 ar-robes this crop."

The private letters by the steamer are much more favorable than the printed accounts. They speak of the general soundness of trade and commerce, and consider the stringency of money as uncatural and temporary. The drain of gold to France it was believed could go on but a short time longer. No apprehensions are expressed of disaster, and the talk of a suspension of the banks of England and France appears to be confined to Wall-st. In American remarked upon at an undestrable feature, and when it is followed by such measures as those now in progress. is arounce a sult less satisfactory aspec. The management of the institution, however, has always, upon the whose, been distinguished by great propence; and the whose, been distinguished by great presence; and the dire ors, being actively interested in the commer-cial welfare of the country, it may be inferred that they have carefuely calculated their ulcerior course. The manner is which some of the recent purchases of gold have been unde by the Bank of France is un-ders could to have been simply by their offering such a desire od to have been simply by their odering such a time for it in Paris as to induce the various exchange dealers at dothe s to draw it from the Bank of England through their several correspondents, the means being raised by the discount of tills in London. Thus it seems that no special agents have been employed in the matter, each importer of the gold carrying it to the Bank of France on his own seconds and receiving notes in payment. When the bills discounted in London shall all due, the acceptors must provide fundition Paris of meet them, and the demand for the purpose will then have to be met by that estab ishment.
